Monday Night for the Master Information Network

Our Monday Night for the Master program begins October 1st. We will meet at the building each Monday night from 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm. A meal will be shared then we will contact various individuals via personnel visits, phone calls and/or cards.

The program will function effectively only if the church becomes a network supplying needed ideas and information. If you would like to help, please consult this list each week and submit outreach suggestions and contact information.

Please include full name, address, phone number, a brief description of your relationship with the contact and any information concerning the reason for contact.

Submit contact information via email to Harold or David. Email: htincher@yahoo.com, davidwright64@gmail.com. Give hand written notes to Harold.

Here are a couple of contact information examples:

- On Friday Jane Smith, my coworker, was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Cards can be sent to 123 Main St. Her phone number is 555-1234.
- Tommy Jones, my neighbor's child, is turning five this Saturday. Birthday cards may be sent to 456 Oak Lane.

The list below can stimulate your thinking; feel free to make suggestions not specified.

SPIRITUAL NEED

- Irregular attendance or unfaithful church member
- Neighbor, friend, or relative indicating an open heart to the Gospel

CELEBRATIONS

- Birthdays, engagements, weddings, anniversaries, graduations, academic honors, athletic achievements, promotions, new jobs, retirement

PERSONAL DISTRESS

- House fire, job loss, identity theft
- Death of a parent, spouse, child, grandchild, sibling, close friend
- Temporary sickness, chronic illness, hospitalization, nursing home confinement, disabling injury, shut-in at home

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.” - Matthew 5:14

His Need, Her Need

David Wright

Jesus meets the Samaritan woman at the Sychar well. He offers her “living water” (John 4:10), but several factors make accepting his offer difficult. She is hindered by racial prejudice, lack of spiritual discernment, an immoral lifestyle, false religious beliefs, and discrimination against women in her culture.

This familiar account is in John 4, but the chapter division separates two narratives that may belong together. The accounts of Nicodemus the Pharisee (ch. 3) and the woman at the Sychar well (ch. 4) present a fascinating contrast. Note below some key differences between them:

- He is a man. She is a woman.
- He is a Jew. She is a Samaritan.
- He has good character. She is immoral.
- He is serious. She is flippant.
- He is well educated. She is unlearned.
- He is rich and powerful. She is lowly and despised.

In spite of their striking differences, this man and woman have something in common. To Nicodemus, Jesus says, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3). To the Samaritan woman, Jesus says, “Whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst; the water that I shall give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life” (4:14). What these two have in common is a need for Jesus, the source of life and hope. You and I need Jesus too.

Sermon

John 7:1-9

His Brothers Did Not Believe (a.m.)

Singing Emphasis (p.m.)

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup> This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him.” <sup>3</sup> Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

<sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman said to him, “How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?” (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) <sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.” John 1:1-3; 4:9-10

Memory Verses

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light

Gen. 1:1-3, ESV

Hamburg Happenings

We will have a singing emphasis during our Sunday evening service. Men who desire to lead a song please sign the sheet in the foyer.

On Sunday, September 30, we will host Kids' Day for elementary school children. The morning message will be specifically for kids. A pizza lunch will be followed by outdoor games and activities. Ladies' please bring cookies or other finger food desserts. Flyers are available in the foyer.

Everyone interested in sharing Kids Day invitations should meet at the church building at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. We will distribute invitations in the neighborhoods near the building, or in a neighborhood of your choice, by placing them in newspaper boxes or on front porches. No door knocking is planned.

Our first Monday Night for the Master meeting will be at 6:00 p.m. on October 1. The program directors want Hamburg Pike visitors to receive a small loaf of homemade banana bread. But if Harold and David baked the bread, the visitors would never come back And so, ladies, if you are willing to help with a bread baking rotation, please sign the sheet in the foyer.

Reminder: Please complete your involvement form and give to Jerry Casey or Hayward Blanton.

A bon fire is tentatively scheduled for Oct 13th; Clint Jr. will provide further details.

Thanks to all who helped make the leadership workshop a success; to Louanne, Paula Casey, Carolyn Wright, Jean Churchman, Jean Marshall, Marla Sweeney, and Norma Williams for their good work preparing lunch; to Hayward Blanton, Jerry Montgomery, Jean and Ernie Marshall for their help preparing the building and tent; to Merle Knuckles, Irvin Williams, Clint and Debbie Smith for organizing and managing the event.
