My Showing Everyday Faith

by: Edd Sterchi

The respect you show God and His Word on Sundays says a lot about your faith in Him.

The attitude you show the world on Mondays says a lot about your faith in God.

How much time you spend reading your Bible and in prayer on Tuesdays says a lot about your faith in God.

The number of brethren you visit with on Wednesdays says a lot about your faith in God.

The opportunities and resources you utilize in helping the needy on Thursdays says a lot about your faith in God.

The amount of energy and frequency you use teaching/telling others about Jesus on Fridays says a lot about your faith in God.

Where you go and what you do on Saturdays says a lot about your faith in God.

Now, I realize that all of these pertain to every aspect of our Christianity every day. I just thought it would be a way to help us realize that we are to take up our cross daily and follow Jesus. Do you sacrifice for Christ daily as Paul did?

23 And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. Luke 9:23

31 I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! 1 Cor. 15:31

Good, But Good Enough?

David Wright

“Thank you for inviting me to church, but I’m not much of a church-goer. I am a pretty good person, though. In fact, I’m a little better than some of the people you worship with.” Has anyone ever told you this? Has anyone this week refused your Gospel meeting invitation with such an excuse?

Many people in the world are indeed “good.” They obey the law, pay taxes, work hard, transact business honestly, and donate money to worthy charities. They love the United States and train up their sons to serve in the military. They cherish their families and friends, and stand by their neighbors in times of adversity.

But does the Bible anywhere suggest that moral uprightness secures salvation? Are our sins canceled out by love, honesty, and hard work? If salvation could possibly be attained through personal goodness, then the anguish and humiliation of the cross were utterly pointless. Jesus “saved us, not because of deeds done by us in righteousness, but in virtue of his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration [rebirth] and renewal in the Holy Spirit” (Tit. 3:5).

Even church-goers find this difficult to believe. Consider a common response to the insistence that biblical faith includes immersion in the name of Jesus for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38, 22:16). “My mother was never baptized for any such reason,” a friend replies, “but she went straight to heaven when she died. She was the best and kindest person I have ever known.” I understand these feelings. My mom is an exceptionally kind and gracious person herself. But even the kindest people on earth are still sinners. As Paul says, “none is righteous” (Rom. 3:10). This is why we all need the good news that Gary Knuckles will be preaching this weekend.

Sermon

Acts 28:17-22

The Sect Everywhere Spoken Against (a.m.)

At the Window of My House (p.m.)

<sup>5</sup> This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup> If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. <sup>7</sup> But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup> If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup> If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. 1 John 1:5-10
